Dear [Gallery Name],

The Chinese have a saying, “don’t eat to live, live to eat” and as a chef and an artist I couldn’t agree more.

As a Chef and Food Designer, I would like to offer you my catering services for your events. My nouveau cuisine features exotic interpretations of Mediterranean, Italian, Middle Eastern, Mexican, and even BBQ.

Whether it’s an intimate dinner for 10 or hors d'oeuvres for 300, I can give you creativity and originality in every dish. My secret is fusing the familiar with the novel, producing something entirely unexpected yet scrumptious.

I invite you to visit sohochef-creative.com to see some glorious food photography.

Best Regards,
Sebastian Jules aka Sebs

Dear Aficionado of Dégustation,

I am a Chef and Food Designer seeking an opportunity to delight your senses with a cuisine role in your home.

I have expertise with British, American, French, Italian, Japanese, Cuban cooking, as well as fusion cuisines that delivery unique dishes that are memorable long after they have been consumed.

As a non-smoker, I have preserved my palate's ability to distinguish the subtlety of flavors, I do not delivery dishes that are too spicy or too mild, and would appreciate to conserve my senses in a non-smoking home.

I invite you to see some of my cuisine photos.

Best Regards,
Sebastian Jules aka Sebs.

Life gets better with a glass of wine. From the comic to the radical, I start a journey to create quintessential food and textures beyond expectations. I live for extraordinary food, fun and passion.

I plan to create modern culinary concepts and hope to work on TV as a professional cook. Meanwhile, I'm keeping the Edwardian Punk theme as part of my website: sohochef-creative.com

Best regards,

Sebastian Jules
